

Pre-Game

Resources:

Assist in finding literacy resources and making use of them.

- Websites

Conversations:

Identify issues and needs, set goals, and problem solve.

- Simple- deep

Lesson Plans:

Co-plan a lesson or series of lessons utilizing best practices of effective teaching!

Differentiation Support:

Help design and adapt lessons activities and assessments.

Instructional Strategies:

Explore research-based teaching ideas that work with many students.

Game

Team Teaching Experience:

Plan cooperatively and teach a lesson/series of lessons together.

Classroom Observations:

Visit classrooms together to observe other teachers

Data Conversations:

Collaboratively analyze data, including student work to make instructional decisions.

Model Lessons:

Teach a lesson/series of lessons with observation by the classroom teacher.

- Includes co-planning
- Reflection

Post-Game

Reflection:

Reflect on student learning and teaching through conversation and observation.

Partnerships:

Provide opportunities for teachers to connect with other grade level teachers through-out the district.

Brainstorming Session:

Bounce innovative ideas off one another.

District Liaison:

Share current information for staff development curriculum updates, and professional learning opportunities.

- State, district and local level.